ROTARY'S THEME FOR MARCH - "LITERACY"

The President's Corner

In March, we see the end to the winter season (not necessarily the winter weather) and the start of spring. For our club, this time of the year means we are in full preparation mode for our 3rd Annual SOHR (Service to Others: Humanitarian Recognition) Award and Silent Auction Banquet, our only major fundraiser of the year, on April 26th – less than eight weeks away. The success of this banquet will be a result of the collective work and contributions of all club members. What we do now defines what we can do in the future! A successful banquet is necessary for continuing our education initiatives, offering scholarships to the local high school students, developing community projects, assisting those less fortunate in our communities, contributing to the final push of eradicating polio in this world, and the other great things our club presently does AND desires to do in the future. Let's make this our most successful and most enjoyable banquet ever! Brian

Rotarian Debate – March 27th

Are you tired of snarky political debates, with their inflammatory comments and non-answers? The last meeting in March our two program chairs, Dan Warner and John Glieden, will represent lawyers and insurance brokers in our club's first ever "Rotary Debate". They will answer a variety of hard-hitting and light-hearted questions about their industries, Rotary and themselves. Don't miss this opportunity to learn more about your fellow Rotarians and what they do and most importantly pick the winner!

Feed My Starving Children --- March 7th

The March 6th weekly meeting is being cancelled and we will be meeting as a club at St. Patrick's Church (3535-72nd St., IGH) on the evening of March 7th from 6:30 to 8:30. The event is taking place in the Shamrock Hall. Park on the east side of the building. There are other duties so if we have additional people, they are welcome. Spouses and family members (children and grandchildren over approx. 12 years old) are welcome. The money saved by cancelling the March 6th lunch will be donated to Feed My Starving Children.
